Jurisdiction

The Terms of Use will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of California, without reference to its conflicts of law provisions. The United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods, the application of which is hereby expressly excluded, will not govern the Terms of Use. Any dispute regarding the Terms of Use will be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the state courts in and for Santa Clara County, California, U.S.A. (or, if there is federal jurisdiction, the United States District Court for the Northern District of California), and the parties hereby irrevocably agree to submit to the personal and exclusive jurisdiction and venue of such courts. The Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar laws or regulations do not apply to this Agreement and the governing law will remain as if such law or regulation had not been enacted.

If one or more of the provisions contained in the Terms of Use is held invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect by any court of competent jurisdiction, such holding will not impair the validity, legality, or enforceability of the remaining provisions.
